

INDIAN YOUTH ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION

The Indian Youth Economic Association (IYEA) was founded on the 26th of June 2012. Since then the Association has undertaken various activities in different fields and at different levels in its endeavor to help the youth gauge the various intricacies of economics. It aims to spread economic knowledge and the results of economic research; Encourage the exchange of ideas between the youth and the application of the results of economic research; Support the education and training of students in economics and other social sciences; and Provide resources for young economists in the areas of education, research, business, industry, government and public policy. The list of the various endeavors of the Association is as follows:

On August 4th-5th 2012, the IYEA organized its flagship event, the Wall Street Meet, 2008 at the Indian Social Institute, New Delhi. This was simulation wherein participants various institutes from across the countries acted as the 'who-s who' of the Wall Street trying to deal with 2008 crisis and attempting save the economy from getting caught up in a downward spiral.

On the 30th and 31st of January the IYEA acted the Knowledge Partner for Econotize, the Annual Economics Fest of the Economics Society of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College. The IYEA assisted with various activities that required in-depth research into various economics' phenomena.

The IYEA was the Knowledge Partner of the The Finance and Investment Cell, Hindu College for their Annual Finance Fest- Enigma, to be held this year on the 12th and 13th of February. The IYEA worked closely with the institution for their event- The Last Man Standing.

The IYEA also acted as the Knowledge Partner of DDUC for International Comercio (Mock Stocks Competition) held on the 28th of February.

The IYES was the Knowledge Partner of ECOLIBRIUM, the Economics Society of P.G.D.A.V. College, University of Delhi for its Annual Economics Festival - Ecolligence.

The IYEA was also the the Knowledge Partner of GD Goenka International Model United Nations Conference held in May, 2014. It worked closely with UNECOSOC being simulated which discussed-The Impact of Economic Sanctions On Vulnerable Populations.

The IYEA in association with the Finance Club of DDUC, University of Delhi organized MONOPOLY at FINANZA '14. This event added a twist to the traditional game of Monopoly and tested the financial skills of the participants.

The IYEA in partnership with The Indian Debating Union organized the flagship IDU debate, held in association with New Delhi's iconic India Habitat Centre on the 5th of April.

The IYEA in collaboration with Chicago Model United Nations conducted the first session of the Chicago Model United Nations India (ChoMUN) in July 2014. ChoMUN India simulated five committees, namely, The United Nations Security Council, The Churchill War Cabinet, 1940, The BJP-RSS Meet, and The KGB.

The IYEA also partnered with the Finance & Investment Cell, St. Stephen's College for The Financial Summit 2014. Together they presented its signature public speaking event, Financial Summit 2014- Voices Combined, Ideas Refined on 13th and 14th of September, 2014.

IYEA also acted as the knowledge partner for ISBFMUN 2014 and helped in conducting the iUnited Nations Economic and Social Council, United Nations Security Council, The Council of Ministers of the Republic of India and The Russian Cabinet on the 8th & 9th of November 2014 at the ISBF Campus, New Delhi.

The IYEA also undertook a Summer Internship Program to spread economic knowledge among the youth. It endeavored to conduct researches into various areas of Economics and its applicability in the practical world. Under this program the IYEA trained undergraduate and graduate students as Research Associates and Media & Liaison Associates.